*Please understand that we may not be able to accommodate your requests, and that there may be changes.

After we have received and considered your application, we will send the details whether or not you have a room and the fees separately.

The processing of your application may be delayed if you fail to fill in all the required spaces.

If you have not heard from us one month or more after you have mailed your application, please enquire. We regret any inconvenience.

Note: We will use the party name, contents and introductions in our program book and the Nippon 2007 public homepage, etc. If you don't provide a description in English and Japanese, the Nippon 2007 committee may provide an English or Japanese description for you. Please restrict the contents and introductions to 255 characters (127 wide or Japanese characters) each.
